

About Conejo Community Closet

- About the Closet:

The Conejo Community Closet is a free resource for local Conejo Valley individuals and families in need. With the help and generosity of the community, we aim to connect individuals in need with donations that will cover basic needs such as clothing, work attire, household items, and baby gear.

CCO is seeking sponsors to help cover the financial cost of securing the storage space to accommodate the Closet's donations.

- Conejo Community Closet Sponsor - $136.50 quarterly (or $273 quarterly for sponsorship of both storage units)

- Dedicated post on CCO website detailing focus of sponsor, benefits of business, local appeal, if any, and additional information as mutually agreed upon by sponsor and CCO.
- Sponsor logo and business name on footer of CCO website for duration of Closet sponsorship.
- Promotion via local moms Facebook groups, with permission of group admins, with combined reach close to 15,000 moms and estimated local unique reach of around 12,000 local moms.
- Promotion on CCO Facebook page at least twice per quarter during sponsorship.
- "Proud Supporter of Conejo Community Outreach" logo for use on your website, as desired.
- Dedicated business page under CCO's Sponsors page on CCO Website

Full Name

Company

City State Zip

Email

Phone Number

Beginning October 1, 2016, I would like to:

- Sponsor one storage unit ($136.50 quarterly)
- Sponsor two storage units ($273.00 quarterly)

Enclosed is my check in the amount of $_____

About Conejo Community Outreach

Conejo Community Outreach is an IRS-recognized 501(c)3 corporation.

CCO aims to connect local generosity with local need for support by hosting a variety of community fundraising events that directly give back to individuals and families in the Conejo Valley.